BUILDING BLOCKS

In our second reading we hear John testify, "Behold, see what love the Father has given us, that we should be called Children of God; and that is what we are." (1 John 3: 1a) Yes, you and I are children of God! We belong to our God and Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit! We are a part of a divine family, redeemed and saved through the Precious Blood of Jesus poured out on the cross, out of love for sinful humanity. The communion of saints, indeed is the reality that we celebrate today. It includes the saints in the church militant (those of us on earth), saints in the church suffering (those in purgatory), and the saints in the church triumphant (those in heaven). We have a unique bond with all of three churches in that communion of saints because we're all striving to one day be fully united together in the Kingdom which lasts forever.

It is because of Jesus' redemptive sacrifice on the cross that those who have gone before us and all of us who are presently alive on earth are offered the grace to move beyond our sinfulness and to experience a new, risen life in Christ. It is because of that redemptive sacrifice on the cross that all of us can become more than what our sinfulness has convinced us we could be. It is because of that redemptive sacrifice on the cross that we can become saints--- even now on earth--- heirs to the Kingdom of God, and faithful servants of the Most High!

Besides Mary, none of the saints who have already made it to heaven were perfect. They all had to struggle against sin and temptation and to rely on the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit to reject sinful behaviors and to live a life of faith, hope and love. All the saints made mistakes along the way and learned from them and oftentimes, it's those mistakes which shaped their life's course and the great things that they would do for God. It's because of their humanity that all of us can relate to the saints in particular ways.

All of us have special saints that we feel close to because we can relate to them, perhaps in a personal way, given their experiences on earth may have been similar to our own. All of us too have saints that we turn to in times of stress, despair and need and ask for their divine intercession before the throne of God in heaven. But there are more saints than there are days in the calendar year and some of them haven't even been officially declared saints by the church. All of them share this day together, when we honor their life's witness to the Gospel and their desire to help us, who are still on earth, to attain the glories of heaven. Like them, we rely on the grace of God to do that and they are there to ask God to give us all the particular graces we need to live a holy life and to finally be welcomed home to the eternal life which awaits all of God's faithful in the church triumphant. So today is a day to build your relationship with the communion of saints and to be inspired to live a holy life! --- Fr. Sam

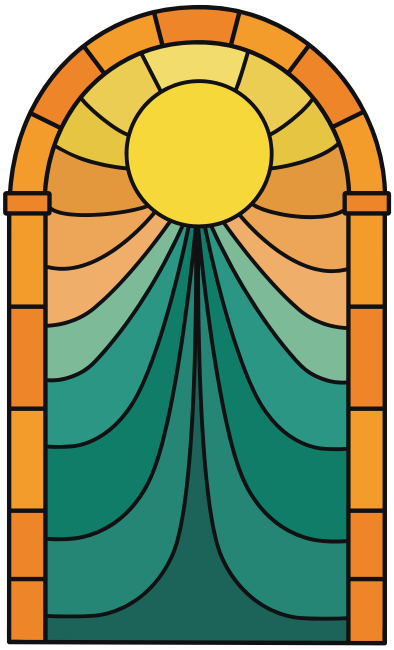
NEIGHBOURS HELPING NEIGHBOURS
"CHRISTMAS GROCERY CARD DRIVE"

Between November 8 - 22, there will be a 2nd collection at each of our Masses to raise funds for this annual campaign. Over the past years, we have replaced the Christmas baskets by providing Metro grocery cards that are distributed to registered families before Christmas. This allows people in need the dignity of choosing the food they traditionally eat for Christmas.

You are invited to use an envelope found in your pews labeled "Christmas Grocery Card Drive". If you wish a tax receipt, be sure to include your Name, Address and Postal Code or simply indicate your current Church Env.# Important: If donating by cheque, please make payable to Holy Redeemer Church and memo "Christmas Grocery Cards" or you may E-Transfer to holyredeemer@ssmd.ca also being sure to indicate "Christmas Grocery Cards". Any funds donated after the distribution days will be used by the food bank for ongoing food support in Minnow Lake.



Stained Glass Window

I have asked a local stained glass artist to prepare a stained glass window with the image of baptismal waters flowing from one end to the other to be placed above the two doors at the end of the church's centre aisle. The project costs $800.00 and we would like to know if any of you would like to contribute a donation for this stained glass artwork. If you are able, please contact Fr. Sam before or after mass or by email or phone. You can choose to be anonymous or to be recognized for your contribution. The artwork is underway and will be completed sometime in January 2027. Thank you for your consideration! --- Fr Sam

Helping Hands

On November 14th and 15th, after each mass, the Helping Hands group will be having a Christmas sale. They will be selling handmade goods, including crafts, quilts, dog scarfs, etc. All money raised will be used to buy fabric and materials used to support local organizations such as women's shelters, the cancer centre, etc.

Your support is greatly appreciated.

DID YOU KNOW?

Someone asked, “why did people marry aunts, uncles, sisters and brothers in the Bible?

In the Bible, marriages between relatives appear mainly in the early biblical narratives, when humanity was described as having fewer people and close-kin marriage was not yet prohibited by Israelite law. Later, the Law of Moses specifically forbade sexual relationships and marriages between many close relatives, suggesting that these practices were no longer considered acceptable within Israelite society. The biblical accounts also reflect the customs of the ancient Near East, where marriages within extended families could preserve family ties, property, and cultural identity.
