SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST, THE KING OF THE UNIVERSE

During the season of Ordinary Time that we celebrated post-Easter, we have been reflecting on how we can choose Christ in our everyday living. It's the small acts of loving-kindness and generosity each day that help us to draw closer to Christ and to recognize him with each passing day in those whom the Lord has placed along our life's path. Such small choices amount to a fundamental direction to our lives when the Day of Judgment arrives. On that day, Jesus says we'll be judged by how well our faith enabled us to express acts of loving-kindness and generosity toward the less fortunate, day-in and day-out. It's on that last day when we'll be judged on whether we recognized the innate dignity found in every human being. It's on that last day when those who have been faithful to God in this life will receive the reward of eternal life in the New Creation that will be governed by our Great King, Jesus Christ.

God's Kingdom then is meant for those who have lived by faith and have realized God's reign by the mercy they have shown toward those who did not have the blessings that they needed in order to thrive in our world—whether it was their own doing or the result of some injustice experienced along the way.

God's kingdom is meant for those who quietly and without much fanfare, have chosen God each day, chosen to love him in their brother or sister who is hurting, and have served them in whatever capacity they were able.

In choosing to see God within each one, they were honoring the Creator of all Things, and thus gave God the honor, glory and praise that are his due. As we end this Season of Ordinary Time, let us not forget to continue to choose Christ as we enter the new Season of Advent next week, by drawing all people to the Light which Christ brings into our world.

DID YOU KNOW?

Someone asked, What is the purpose of the humeral veil?

A Catholic priest or deacon uses a humeral veil primarily when carrying or blessing with the Blessed Sacrament. It is placed over the shoulders and draped over the hands to signify reverence and to avoid directly touching the monstrance or ciborium during Eucharistic processions, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the transfer of the Eucharist to or from an altar of repose to the main altar or to the tabernacle. During Benediction, the humeral veil emphasizes that the blessing from the Eucharist is not coming from the priest, but from God himself. The humeral veil is therefore a liturgical sign of honour and devotion to Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist.

Let us know what you want to learn next: sacraments, saints, Scripture, prayer, seasons, and more. Leave a note in the "Did You Know?" box at the bulletin table.

LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS

Solemnities, Feasts, Memorials

November 24:
St Andrew Dung-Lac, Priest and Companions, Martyrs

One man, a priest, gives his name to today's feast, but the one stands for many: 117 Vietnamese faithful. They were bishops, priests, and many laypeople, a mother of six and even a nine-year-old child, who gave their lives for Christ between the 17th and the 19th centuries. 96 were native Vietnamese and 21 were Spanish or French missionaries who had embraced that land and culture. The group of 117, canonized together by Pope John Paul II in 1988, in turn stands for a nameless multitude estimated at between 100,000 and 300,000 martyrs, the "great cloud of witnesses" whose blood was the seed of a thriving Church in the land of Vietnam.

Advance Requests for Euthanasia

What Catholics Need to Know About Bill C-41

excerpts from the fact sheet from the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops

For full information, pick up the fact sheet from the CCCB at the kiosk

What our faith asks of us

Every person possesses dignity simply by being a unique person created in the image and likeness of God. Illness, memory loss, and dependence do not diminish it. The Church opposes euthanasia and assisted suicide. Following Christ and a long Christian tradition of care, we are called to accompany people who are sick, frail, or marginalized. Caring for a person can never include deliberately ending their life.

What you can do now

- Pray for people who are ill, those who care for them, and for an end to euthanasia in our country. Consider fasting as your health permits.
- Share this fact sheet and encourage respectful discussion in your parish and community.
- Make your voice heard—write to your Member of Parliament.

  Join the CCCB's letter-writing campaign to ask your MP to:
- Keep the mental-illness exclusion in place through separate legislation.
- Remove the advance-request provisions from Bill C-41.

Personalize and send your letter using the CCCB template.

- Help build a community in which people can count on one another.

  Visit people who are sick or frail, and support their caregivers. These works of mercy bear witness to Christ's love and affirm that everyone deser ves care and companionship until natural death.

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) brings together Canada's Catholic bishops to address matters of shared pastoral concern and contribute to public life in the light of the Gospel.
