BUILDING BLOCKS

“Before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify.” (Luke 21: 12-13)

Sounds a lot like life in the USA today doesn't it?! So sad if it weren't so true! The point Jesus makes though, is that there will come a time when you have to stand up for Christ and his Gospel –much like Pope Leo XIV's strong support for immigrants who are being indiscriminately rounded up and treated with disrespect and even sometimes being arrested.

Our pope urges us to not be silent! We need to be steadfastly on the side of the poor and the marginalized, on the side of the immigrant and those who have left their countries due to political oppression and who seek asylum.

Christian Nationalism, is not Christian. It disrespects the rights of all religious faiths to coexist and to be brothers and sisters of one nation. It disrespects the rights of all to be treated with human dignity and according to the laws of the land.

So let us not shy away from risking persecution or criticism from others, if it means we are standing up for the voiceless and the powerless. Let us stand steadfastly on the side of the immigrant and the poor and advocate for their freedom and their right to live a dignified life. – Fr Sam

Prayer

Lord, help us stay faithful and diligent in our work and faith. Give us strength to endure trials and wisdom to face challenges. May we always trust in Your justice and blessings. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW?

Who can be a Godparent?

In the Roman Catholic Church, the role of a godparent (sometimes referred to as a sponsor) is both an honour and a responsibility. The Church's Canon Law sets out specific requirements for who can serve as a godparent for the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation.

Here are the Canonical Requirements (# 872 through 874):

- 1. Age: The godparent must generally be at least 16 years old. However, the pastor may allow an exception for a just cause.
- 2. Confirmation and Eucharist: A godparent must be a Roman Catholic who has received the sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist.
- 3. Practicing the Faith: The godparent should lead a life in keeping with the Catholic faith and the responsibilities of the role.
- 4. Not the Parent: The parent of the person being baptised or confirmed cannot serve as a godparent. However, step-parents may fulfill this role.
- 5. Canonical Status: The godparent must not be bound by any canonical penalty (such as excommunication).
- 6. Number of Godparents: For Baptism, there can be one godparent, or one godfather and one godmother. More than two godparents are not permitted officially. Unofficially, as some cultures have the tradition of having lots of godparents, you can select as many as you want. However, only one godmother and one godfather are recorded officially in the church registers.

Can a baptized Christian who is not Catholic serve as a godparent? The answer is no. However, such a person can serve as a Christian witness together with a Catholic godparent.

Can an unbaptized person serve as a godparent or witness? The answer is no, because they don't share the Christian faith into which the person is being baptized.

What if my chosen godparent can't be physically present at the baptism? Then a proxy stands in the person's place during the ceremony and the official godparent is recorded in the baptismal registry.

Since being a godparent is a significant spiritual commitment, the Canon Law of the Church is meant to ensure that the selected godparents are able to support the faith journey of the person they are sponsoring.

Let us know what you want to learn next: sacraments, saints, Scripture, prayer, seasons, and more. Leave a note in the "Did You Know?" box at the bulletin table.
