St. Paul writes in our second reading this weekend,

“For we know, brothers and sisters, beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the Gospel came to you, not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.”

(1 Thess 1: 4-5)

---Great words to meditate on from St. Paul! The gist of what he’s saying is that we can only choose Christ because he chose us first! And the reason he’s chosen us isn’t arbitrary or without any forethought. He doesn’t choose us for some petty activity either. No, he chooses us for a grandiose, graced mission---- to spread the message of the gospel in power, in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction! And we’ve received this mission at our Baptismal Consecration and had it strengthened at our Confirmation.

If we’re willing to receive it, God gives us power by the Holy Spirit to not be timid or shy about the Gospel. He gives us courage and boldness, confidence and eloquence, in order that we might be able to spread his Good News to the four corners of the earth or to whomever God may choose to send us and in the most unlikely of circumstances, sometimes.

What’s more, God chooses to entrust to us his message of love and mercy, of justice and peace, of faith and hope, and of eternal life in the everyday-now of our everyday existence. There is no special or perfect time to act lovingly, mercifully, with justice and peace. There is no special or perfect time to live by faith and hope in eternal life! No, every moment of every day and in every circumstance, we are charged to witness to these Good News values and to embody them to whomever needs them the most! God will provide the grace! We just need to be empty vessels!

To be honest, we’ll never be perfect at it in this life because of human sinfulness, but we do have the promise by God that such values will be fully realized in the age to come by God himself!

God’s choice of us as his collaborators in this divinely-inspired mission is not enough, though. We have to freely and generously accept it and embrace it with full hearts! We have to say ‘yes’ to allowing the Holy Spirit to give us the power to transform lives and to work miracles. We have to say ‘yes’ to the Holy Spirit’s grace that will make us bold and courageous and confident. Only then can God’s choice bear fruit for the salvation of the world.

'One in Christ, united in mission' theme of World Mission Sunday 2026

Appeal of Pope Leo XIV

In his appeal this year in support of World Mission Sunday, Pope Leo emphasized that it is a privileged occasion for the entire Church to join in prayer for missionaries and for the fruitfulness of their apostolic work. The Pope, recalling his personal experience as a priest and later as a missionary bishop in Peru, stated: "I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer, and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities."

DID YOU KNOW?

Someone asked, “What are days of obligation? Are they like Sunday?”

The answer to the second question is Yes! A holy day of obligation is observed much like a Sunday. For Catholics in Canada, the days of obligation are:

- Every Sunday
- January 1 — the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God
- December 25 — the Nativity of the Lord (Christmas)

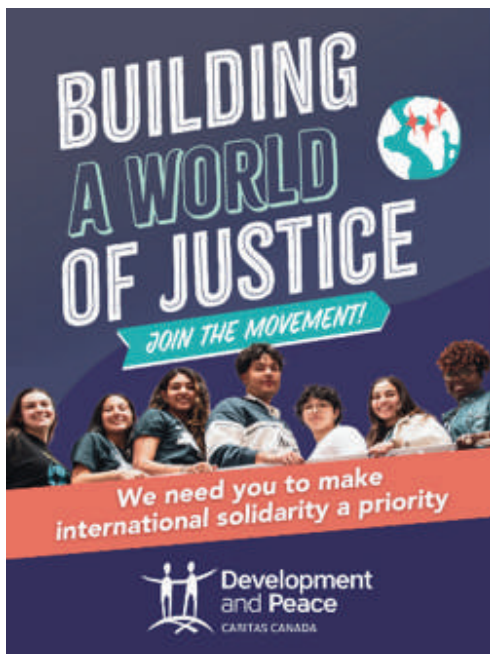

On days of obligation, Catholics are expected to:

- Participate in Mass, either on the day itself or at an evening vigil Mass the preceding day.
- Avoid work and activities that unnecessarily interfere with worship, rest, family life, or the joy appropriate to the day, insofar as reasonably possible.

The usual exceptions that excuse someone from Sunday Mass also apply—for example, illness, caring for someone, dangerous travel conditions, being too far away from a church to attend, or another serious reason.

A pastor can dispense the obligation on a one-to-one basis. It is important to note that other important solemnities—such as the Ascension of the Lord and the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ—are generally transferred to the closest Sunday in Canada.

Let us know what you want to learn next: sacraments, saints, Scripture, prayer, seasons, and more. Leave a note in the “Did You Know?” box at the bulletin table.
