Jesus said to his apostles, "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you and you will be my witnesses....to the ends of the earth. (Acts1:8)

As Christ's missionaries of today, we're not sent out alone and left to our own resources. Quite the contrary, we're sent out by Christ with the Holy Spirit and the power that the Spirit imbues to our words and actions! We're sent out with the boldness of the early disciples to communicate the joy of the resurrection to all with whom we come into contact. We're also sent out with fellow-missionaries to support us on our pilgrim way to the Heavenly Kingdom.

The Holy Spirit then is meant to thrust us out of our comfort zones, our familiar surroundings, our families and friends, and enable us to spread the nets of God's kingdom ever wider, as we go to new places, meet new people, and preach by word and deed, the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit is also meant to cast fear and anxiety aside and to put in its place, a boldness that comes from the supernatural acts that the Holy Spirit effects by His indwelling in our hearts, minds, and souls. It is by the Spirit's power that we can invite others to find what we've found in Christ. It's by so doing that we extend God's family with ever greater diversity of members and enable more and more people to come to know the breadth, height, depth, and extent of God's love for us sinners, whom Christ has redeemed with his Precious Blood poured out on the Cross and witnessed to by his Resurrection. So don't be shy! Don't be timid! Allow the Holy Spirit to work through you to advance the Kingdom of God today! ---

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA: PATRON SAINT OF HOPE IN DIFFICULT TIMES

Saint Rita of Cascia is the patron saint of difficult marriages, impossible causes, infertility, and parenthood. Her life exemplifies that holiness comes from responding to God's grace, not from ideal circumstances. Rita's faithfulness in challenging situations reflects her baptismal vocation and growth as a disciple of Jesus. She inspires families and individuals facing struggles to trust in God's grace with faith and perseverance.

The Ascension of the Lord

Reminds believers that Jesus is still present. He leads His Church and strengthens His followers through the Holy Spirit. His command to preach, teach, and baptize continues today. Catholics are called to share their faith and live as disciples. The Ascension is not just about Jesus leaving it is about His mission continuing through His people.

DID YOU KNOW?

Someone asked, 'If I can not find a Christian wife, should I marry a non-Christian woman? I yearn to have a wife and children.'

We often don't have control over whom we are attracted to or over our life circumstances. Sometimes, we may fall in love with someone who is not of the Catholic faith. What are we to do in such circumstances?

Sometimes, having a conversation with our intended fiancé about becoming a Roman Catholic may be a good option, especially if he/she is not regularly practicing the faith into which they were raised. Becoming of the same faith may bring the two of you together in a greater way!

If that is not an option, the Catholic Church permits its members to marry someone outside of the faith, though it views such unions as "mixed marriages." To marry a non-Catholic Christian, the Catholic party must obtain permission from their local bishop, while marrying someone who is not baptised requires a special dispensation.

When a mixed marriage does occur, the Church encourages the Roman Catholic spouse to continue practising his/her faith and hopes that any children that are born will be raised Roman Catholic. While it respects personal choice, the Church also cautions about potential challenges in maintaining religious unity within the family when both spouses are not of the same faith tradition.
